Questions in Christian Philosophy Series

How do we know? What should we do? What is real? What is art?

Philosophy, which means “the love of wisdom,” asks such questions in its pursuit of the knowledge and understanding of all facets of life: existence, knowledge, ethics, art, and more. But what does it mean for Christians to pursue wisdom when Scripture affirms that the crucified and risen Christ is “the wisdom of God” (1 Cor 1:24)?

IVP Academic’s Questions in Christian Philosophy (QCP) series seeks to help readers in their pursuit of wisdom from a Christian perspective by offering introductory textbooks on the various branches of philosophy. Designed for students with little or no background in the discipline, this series draws on experts in the field and lays a solid foundation for further philosophical reflection in pursuit of divine wisdom.

Series editors:

- James K. Dew Jr., president and professor of Christian philosophy, New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary
- W. Paul Franks, associate professor of philosophy, Tyndale University, Toronto
