

DETAILS

Disability and Evangelism The Good News of the Fullness of God's Kingdom

April 21, 2026 | $28.99, 248 pages, paperback | 978-1-5140-0978-9

In Disability and Evangelism, Rochelle Scheuermann casts a vision for including people with disabilities in all aspects of evangelism, from how we understand and tell the gospel story, to how we evangelize to and with people with disabilities. This groundbreaking book invites us to reshape our evangelism theology and practice so that people with disabilities are central in all we think, say, and do.

Center for Disability and Ministry Books

Center for Disability and Ministry books explore the intersection of disability and practical theology in partnership with the Center for Disability and Ministry at Western Theological Seminary. Co-edited by Benjamin T. Conner and John Swinton, this series explores key issues in disability theology through the framework of practical theology, aiming to increase knowledge as well as faithfully impact Christian practice.

In this series, you'll find:

- How the church can become more inclusive of both the gifts and challenges of disability
- The latest scholarship from leading voices in disability ministry and practical theology
- How your congregation can be equipped for more faithful ministry to all people

Titles in the series include:

Disabling Leadership: A Practical Theology for the Broken Body of Christ

by Andrew T. Draper, Jody Michele, and Andrea Mae

December 12, 2023 | $25.99, 208 pages, paperback | 978-1-5140-0335-0

Churches must both consider the theology of disability and also become places where people with disabilities lead. Moving beyond paternalistic views of disability, this book encompasses cutting-edge theological ethics as well as practical examples of how church leaders and congregants can foster genuinely inclusive leadership teams.

Coming soon:

Centering Disability in Worship: Liturgy and Prayer for the Whole Church

edited by Rebecca F. Spurrier and Beckah Maren Anderson

February 23, 2027 | $26.99, 240 pages, paperback | 978-1-5140-1618-3

If people with disabilities are to fully participate, worshiping communities must go beyond providing physical accessibility. In this groundbreaking book, a diverse group of authors provides resources for churches and individuals to center disability: to take seriously the lived experience of disabled people, learn from their wisdom, and transform how we pray, worship, and speak about faith.

Karin DeHaven, senior publicist kdehaven@ivpress.com or ivpress.com/media

ivpress.com/media