Faith Foundations

99 Devotions to Help Your Family Know, Love, and Act Like Jesus

October 21, 2025 | $19.99, 240 pages, paperback | 978-1-5140-1264-2

Brian Dembowczyk (PhD, Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary) is associate publisher for Thomas Nelson Bibles and the author of Family Discipleship That Works. He was previously the managing editor of The Gospel Project, a Bible study curriculum used by over 1.6 million adults, teens, and children each week, and he has also been a pastor, discipleship pastor, and family pastor.

A Catechism Devotional for Faithfully Engaging the Family

Grow as disciples . . . together.

Faith Foundations enables parents and children to dig into the essential truths of Christianity to deepen their understanding of theology and strengthen their love for Jesus. Through ninety-nine devotions for families to engage in together, this family catechism introduces and explores the core areas of Christian doctrine.

The core areas:

- God the Father
- Jesus
- The Holy Spirit
- People and sin
- Salvation
- The Bible
- Christian living
- The church
- Last things

This book is perfect for:

- A dinnertime devotion
- Reading Scripture and praying together as a family
- Deepening your child's understanding of biblical truths
- Clear connections to Jesus before bedtime
- Relationship-strengthening conversations
- Applying key doctrines to family life

"Faith Foundations by Brian Dembowczyk is an essential resource for every ministry leader, parent, and grandparent. It makes core Christian truths accessible and practical for families, helping them grow in their understanding of theology and live out their faith daily. I wish I would have had this book years ago—it would have been a game-changer for my own family discipleship!"

Pastor and Publisher Creates Family Discipleship Book Duo

Brian Dembowczyk (PhD, Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary) is associate publisher for Thomas Nelson Bibles and the author of Family Discipleship That Works. He was previously the managing editor of The Gospel Project, a Bible study curriculum used by over 1.6 million adults, teens, and children each week, and he has also been a pastor, discipleship pastor, and family pastor. He lives in Tennessee with his wife and three children.

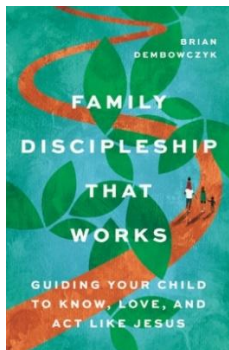

Drawing from his experience as a parent, family pastor, and curriculum leader, Brian writes, speaks, and teaches mostly with an eye on helping equip parents, grandparents, and churches to disciple children and teens faithfully and deeply. Brian served in a parachurch ministry and local church ministry for twenty years before transitioning to the publishing field. His wife Tara is a licensed mental health therapist, and with their three teenage children, they live in Middle Tennessee.

Brian has spoken on ministry to children at national ministry conferences such as ETCH (Equipping the Church and Home, Nashville), Children's Pastors Conference (Orlando), and The One Conference (Edmonton, Canada). He has also spoken at regional and local conferences, such as Acts 29, and internationally, in South Africa and the Philippines.

Other books by Brian:

- Family Discipleship That Works
- Cornerstones: 200 Questions and Answers to Learn Truth
- Cornerstones: 200 Questions and Answers to Teach Truth
- Gospel-Centered Kids Ministry

Amid our busyness, the multitude of different approaches, and our own self-doubts, the deck seems stacked against us. But Brian Dembowczyk isn't here to pile on the guilt or to make us feel like failures. As a parent himself, he knows this struggle firsthand.

In Family Discipleship That Works, Dembowczyk says that the goal of discipling our kids isn't just passing along head knowledge. It's teaching them to act like Jesus. The Bible itself is not just a story but a drama in which we ourselves participate, and our kids have roles to play too. Dembowczyk offers practical advice and a wealth of ideas for teaching our kids to imitate the character traits of Jesus himself as we "act out" the Christian life together.
